2008 UMAC WOMEN'S TENNIS TOURNAMENT DAY 1 RECAP

College of St. Scholastica Sweeps Doubles Flights

April 25, Minneapolis, Minn. – The College of St. Scholastica positioned themselves to capture the 2008 Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) women's tennis post-season tournament championship after a perfect opening day performance. The Saints claimed titles in all three doubles flights and will look to continue their winning ways on Saturday in singles action. Northwestern College owned the second-place finisher in each of the doubles flights and will look to challenge St. Scholastica for the league title in singles play. Held at the University of Minnesota Baseline Tennis Center, the two-day event will wrap-up on Saturday with play-in, semi-final and championship rounds of singles flights. Both individual flight champions and a team champion will be recognized.
